Gilbertson, died June 5. In 1947, she began work as a teller at the local bank and continued to work in banking until she retired in 1989, dealing with import/exports. She also devoted a lot of her energies to the church. A large family involvement was singing in the choir wherever they were.

Rev. Walter Philip (Phil) Heinze, 80, died May 25. He served as pastor in congregations throughout Ontario including in Waterloo, Germanicus, Augsburg, Eganville, Niagara Falls, and Newmarket. He also served as chaplain at Rideau Correctional Centre in Burritts Rapids, ON, and as Assistant to the Bishop and Director for Public Policy and Service Ministries for the Eastern Synod of the ELCIC.

Rev. Luther Leon Linqvist, 87, died June 19. He served Augustana, Edmonton; Bethesda, Kenora, ON; Epiphany, Winnipeg; and Finnish Lutheran congregations in Covington and Trout Creek, MI, prior to retirement in 1999 when he then served as pastor-in-residence, Lutheran Theological Seminary, Saskatoon for nine months.

Valentine Gartke, 85, wife of Rev. Waldemar Gartke died June 21. She loved to serve by teaching Sunday school, singing in the choir and being a supportive minister's wife.
